FIRE SERVICE

FIREFIGHTER

(Competitive Class)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS

This is entry-level work in receiving training for and in performing work in combating and extinguishing fires and performing rescue and first aid work in these and other emergencies. Employees of this class attend a systematic program of introductory training in fire control and associated rescue work. They perform hazardous tasks under emergency conditions which may require strenuous exertion in fire, heat, smoke, and cramped surroundings. Although firefighting and rescue work are the most difficult and responsible activities, a major portion of duty time is spent in drills and study and in performing routine duties in the care and maintenance of fire department property and equipment. Work is performed in accordance with explicit instructions and well defined procedures under the guidance and observation of a higher level officer. A Fire Captain assigns routine, daily duties and provides guidance and training in day-to-day activities; employees of this class report to and are supervised and evaluated by a Fire Captain.

EXAMPLES OF WORK

Examples listed below are illustrative only. They are not intended to include all duties which may be assigned, neither are they intended to exclude other duties which may be logical assignments to this class.

Responds to alarms of fire and other emergencies; lays out and connects hose and nozzle; directs water stream; carries, raises, and climbs ladders; uses and operates various types of firefighting implements and equipment.

Extricates persons from accidents and removes persons from danger; administers first aid to the injured; performs salvage operations, placing covers, sweeping water, and removing debris.

Attends company drills in fire station training school; receives instruction in and studies materials related to firefighting and rescue methods, first aid, street and hydrant locations, and the use of fire suppression and rescue apparatus and equipment.

Performs any related duties assigned.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

Unless otherwise specified, all requirements listed below must be met by the filing deadline for application for admission to the test.

Must meet all requirements of the Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service Law, including being a citizen of the United States.

Must have no felony convictions.

Applicant must possess one of the following: high school diploma, high school equivalency certificate, high school transcript, affidavit from the issuing high school, associate's or bachelor's degree, or college transcript, any one of which must indicate that graduation has occurred or a degree awarded. Any Louisiana applicant who presents a home study diploma shall submit necessary documentation indicating Louisiana Board of Elementary and Secondary Education (BESE) approval of the home study curriculum. Non-Louisiana applicants shall be required to present proof of completion of a high school curriculum which has been accredited by the applicant's state, or its state-approved agency. A certification of completion shall not be sufficient to substitute for a diploma or equivalency certificate.

Must possess a valid motor vehicle operator's license issued by the State of Louisiana upon offer of employment.

After offer of either employment or promotion to a position must meet and maintain any medical and physical fitness standards designed to demonstrate good health and the physical ability to perform the essential duties of the position, with or without accommodation, as determined by a qualified medical physician and administered by the Appointing Authority.

SPECIAL QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

At any time during the probationary period, an employee will not be eligible for continued employment if the employee:

 Fails to successfully complete the basic Firefighter Academy, and/or

 Fails to successfully complete the Louisiana Firefighter Certification System test for certification at the Firefighter I level.

Reviews reports of subordinates and prepares reports for higher ranking officers; responds to and takes control of serious or complex incidents or emergencies until relieved by a superior officer.

Leads and participates with a squad of investigative personnel; reviews cases and makes case assignments; provides advice and assistance to subordinates relative to the conduct of investigations and preparation of cases for prosecution; reviews and approves written reports and case materials.

Participates in investigations of major cases; investigates crimes which remain unsolved following initial investigations; serves on special task forces organized for the purposes of investigating major crimes or criminal activity or of dealing with unusual emergencies or widespread special police problems.

Handles minor employee grievances and refers others to higher authority; assists in disciplinary investigations.

Prepares news releases; analyzes police data as a basis for identifying special problems; enlists police participation in crime prevention and control programs; analyzes crime incidence data; conducts security surveys.

Receives, logs in, records, maintains custody and control of, and releases evidence and recovered property as conditions and standards warrant; provides evidence and testifies as to provenance of materials submitted in evidence; responds to public, offender, witness, and victim requests for information and release of evidence or stolen property; and meets with attorneys regarding the provenance of evidence.

Serves as the representative of the department in expediting and assuring the quality of the maintenance of police vehicles and the safe custody and first echelon maintenance of designated categories of equipment.

Conducts investigations of applicants for bar cards and internal investigations of complaints against police officers; screens, investigates, and interviews applicants for employment as sworn officers; investigates applicants; conducts polygraph investigations of applicants and offenders, and assists in the interrogation of witnesses; participates in special investigations of the conduct of city affairs on instruction from appropriate authority.

Plans and supervises in-service training programs; schedules programs; obtains materials for use in training programs; facilitates and provides administrative support for external training of police officers; maintains library of training files and other materials; provides instruction in aspects of the continuing departmental training program.

Plans and performs technical services in research, communications or special project areas in support of the various law enforcement functions.

Maintains personnel and operation records and prepares reports; participates in in-service training programs, staff meetings, oral interviews, and similar activities.

Performs any related duties assigned.

NECESSARY KNOWLEDGES, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES

Thorough knowledge of the street layout and geography of the city and of significant socio-economic characteristics of the city.

Considerable knowledge of modern police practices and methods.

Considerable knowledge of departmental policies, procedures, rules, and regulations.

Considerable knowledge of applicable federal, state, and local laws and ordinances, including the laws of arrest, search, and seizure.

Knowledge of the principles, practices, and procedures of the special field of assignment.

Knowledge of principles and methods of supervision.

Skill in the use of firearms and other such regular and special police equipment as may be assigned.

Ability to assign, supervise, review, and evaluate work of subordinates.

Ability to communicate effectively, orally and in writing.

Ability to analyze situations quickly and objectively and to determine proper courses of action.

Ability to maintain records and prepare reports.

Ability to deal tactfully and courteously with the public and to establish and maintain effective working relationships among subordinates, with other officers, and with the public.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

Unless otherwise specified, all requirements must be met before admission to examination.

Must meet all requirements of the Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service Law, including being a citizen of the United.

Must be a regular employee in good standing in the rank of Police Corporal.

Must, if employed after October 18, 1989, show evidence of successful completion of fifteen (15) hours of bonafide college level courses required by an accredited curriculum in order to be promoted to the rank of Sergeant.

After offer of either employment or promotion to a position must meet and maintain any medical and physical fitness standards designed to demonstrate good health and the physical ability to perform the essential duties of the position, with or without accommodation, as determined by a qualified medical physician and administered by the Appointing Authority.
