FIREFIGHTER FIRST CLASS

(Promotional Class)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF WORK

This is skilled firefighting work in combating, extinguishing, and preventing fires, in answering emergency calls, and in the operation and maintenance of fire department equipment, apparatus, and quarters.

Work involves training for and participating in the duties of protecting life and property through performing firefighting and rescue activities, usually under close supervision. Employees of his class are required to learn and participate in the operation of apparatus and the performance of hazardous tasks under emergency conditions, which may require strenuous exertion under such handicaps as smoke and cramped surroundings. Although firefighting and rescue work are the most difficult and responsible areas of work, the major portion of time is spent drilling and studying methods, techniques, and organizations, and in routine duties in the care and maintenance of fire department property and equipment. Specific orders and directions are given by superior officers, but the work required initiative and a thorough individual understanding of firefighting methods.

ILLUSTRATIVE EXAMPLES OF WORK

(Any one position of this class may not include all duties listed, nor do listed examples include all duties which may be found in positions of this class.)

Attends training courses; reads and studies assigned materials related to firefighting and prevention.

Responds to fire alarms with a company; operates pumps; lays and connects hose; holds nozzles and directs water streams; raises and climbs ladders; uses chemical extinguishers, bars, hooks, lines, and other equipment.

Ventilates burning buildings by opening windows and skylights or by chopping holes in roofs and floors; removes persons from danger; administers first aid to injured persons.

Performs salvage operations such as throwing salvage covers, sweeping water, and removing debris.

Participates in fire drills and attends classes in firefighting and first aid.

Performs general maintenance work in the upkeep of fire department property; cleans and washes walls and floors; makes minor repairs to property and equipment; washes, hangs, and dries hose; washes, cleans, polishes, and tests apparatus.

Drives and operates motor driven equipment under special instructions and limited conditions.

Performs related work as required.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

Unless otherwise specified, all requirements must be met by the filing deadline for application for admission to the examination.

Must meet all requirements of the Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service Law, including being a citizen of the United States, and of legal age.

Must be a regular and permanent employee in the class of Firefighter immediately preceding closing date for application to the board.

After offer of promotion, but before beginning work in this class, must pass a physical examination, the selection and administration of which shall be authorized by the Appointing Authority, designed to demonstrate good health and physical fitness sufficient to perform the essential duties of the position, with or without accommodation.

Must possess a valid driver's license

CHIEF OF FIRE PREVENTION

(Competitive Class)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS

This class encompasses a responsible administrative and supervisory position, the primary duties of which involve planning, organizing, training, and directing the fire prevention program of the department, including public fire education, fire inspection, and fire investigation. The Chief of Fire Prevention performs public relations duties, writes reports and correspondence, prepares and submits the division operating budget and occasionally supervises all assigned subordinate personnel. The incumbent of this class discusses work assignments in a general way with superiors, and reports to and has work reviewed by the Fire Chief.

EXAMPLES OF WORK

Examples listed below are illustrative only. They are not intended to include all duties which may be assigned, neither are they intended to exclude other duties which may be logical assignments to this class.

Manages the operation and sets goals and objectives for one fire department division as assigned. Prepares and submits a division operating budget. Recommends management policies, goals, and objectives for consideration by a superior officer. Assists in the overall control of the Fire Prevention Division, Fire Investigation Division, Fire Inspection Division, and Public Fire Education Division. Conducts research and oversees the planning for programs and activities of the division. Inspects division operations, evaluates the effectiveness, and takes appropriate action to correct or improve problem areas. Reviews incoming written communications for the division, making assignments to staff and writing comments and notes as necessary to route work to the appropriate person or location. Reviews incident reports written by suppression personnel to determine if action is needed. Holds formal meetings with groups of subordinates for the purpose of receiving reports, disseminating information, or discussing work problems. Assists in reviewing reports written by subordinates and monitoring work pace and progress to determine needed revisions, training, or assistance. Aids superior officers by discussing performance of subordinates and assisting subordinates in technical areas or work. Monitors and evaluates local conditions which may become fire or safety hazards. Recommends changes in department operations that will help the jurisdiction improve ISO ratings. Assists in evaluating new laws, regulations, ordinances, and court rulings relating to fire prevention operations, and determines if changes in division policies and procedures are needed. Participates in conferences, conventions, and other educational meetings, and reads and studies current literature to keep informed on modern fire prevention methods and administrative practices. Assists in maintaining a reference library on inspection, investigation and public fire education topics.

Establishes a fire prevention education program by analyzing demographic data, incident reports, and injury information from hospitals; designing the appropriate method for presentation; and evaluating the effectiveness of the program. Develops support for the fire safety program within the community, involving business leaders in public education efforts. Helps determine what demonstrations and instructional materials should be distributed to the community. Writes speeches for assigned department members and volunteers, and delivers lectures, talks, or demonstrations on fire safety to schools, clubs, or other organizations. Educates the public about fire hazards and conditions, injury prevention, tenability, human behavior during fires, built-in fire protection, and fire dynamics. Provides information on firefighter personal protective equipment, gear, tools, and fire apparatus. Develops evacuation plans for schools, hotels, hospitals, or other buildings required to have such plans, manages fire drills, reviews evacuation plans, and instructs fire drill assistants. Oversees fire safety in public assembly occupancies at major events. Assists superiors to identify fire problems and selects fire safety program components and objectives to meet community needs.

Oversees interior and exterior inspections and manages the inspection of portable fire extinguishers, fire hydrants, and electrical hazards. Prepares for an inspection by reviewing previous reports, building plans, and occupancy codes. Enforces fire prevention codes by re-inspecting buildings where violations of fire codes occurred and, if necessary, issuing citations, assessing fines, serving court summonses or stop work orders for non-compliance. Completes a report of each fire inspection, recording all necessary information about the building, presenting facts and evidence collected during the inspection, and outlining conclusions and recommendations from findings. Contacts the owner/occupant upon arrival at the inspection site, obtains permission for the inspection, and provides a briefing detailing the inspection procedure.
