Also, any member of the board who is an immediate family member of the appealing employee shall recuse himself from voting on any such decision. For purposes of this section, immediate family member shall mean any parent, child, sibling, or spouse.

If such recusal by a member of the board results in the inability of the board to reach a decision by the concurring votes of two (2) members, the board shall be considered to have affirmed the action of the appointing authority.

SECTION 3: Parties shall have the right, but shall not be required, to be represented by an attorney. The board shall be notified of the full name, preferred mailing address, phone number, and email address of all attorneys retained by any party. The burden of proof shall be on the appointing authority except in those cases where, (1) an employee is alleging that he was not given a fair opportunity to prove his abilities in his position after the appointing authority has failed him in his working test as provided for in R.S. 33:2555 and, (2) when an employee alleges discrimination based on political or religious beliefs, sex, or race.

SECTION 6: Parties and witnesses shall be subject to cross-examination. The party bearing the burden of proof shall be first to present evidence and testimony followed by the evidence and testimony of the other party. Board members may ask questions of witnesses.

- SECTION 7: The board may, on request of any party or on its own motion, sequester witnesses and thus exclude them from the hearing room. While sequestered, no person shall discuss or exchange with any other person any information regarding the matter before the board except to speak with an attorney of record.
- SECTION 8: All parties, or their attorneys, shall state their names and addresses for the record, and shall be permitted to give a brief preliminary statement.
- SECTION 9: All persons who will offer testimony or make statements of fact during the hearing shall be sworn. This may be done as a group at the outset of the hearing or individually as they are called to testify. Every statement of fact made at any time during the hearing by any person after having been thus sworn shall be considered to have been made under oath, whether the statement is in response to a specific question or is volunteered in the course of a general discussion.
- SECTION 10: An effort shall be made to complete the questioning of each witness by all parties before beginning the questioning of the next witness.
- SECTION 11: Information available from a particular witness may be received in narrative form, by question and answer, or otherwise as may be directed by the board from time to time.
- SECTION 12: Documentary evidence shall be filed with and marked for identification by the secretary of the board, or another person designated by the chairperson.

imposed is commensurate with the infraction. The board shall determine if the employee's conduct impaired the efficient operation of the fire department.

After the conclusion of the hearing or investigation, if the board finds that the action taken by the appointing authority was in good faith and just cause and the punishment imposed was commensurate with the infraction, the board shall affirm the action of the appointing authority.

If the board finds that the action taken by the appointing authority was in good faith and just cause but the punishment was not commensurate with the infraction, the board shall modify the action of the appointing authority to a lesser punitive action that may be appropriate under the circumstances.

If the board finds that all of the disciplinary action taken was not in good faith and just cause, the board shall overturn the action of the appointing authority. The board shall order the immediate reinstatement of such individual in the office, place, position, or employment from which he was removed, suspended, demoted, or discharged. The reinstatement shall, if the board so provides, be retroactive and entitle him to his regular pay from the time of removal, suspension, demotion, discharge, or other disciplinary action.

If the board finds that the appointing authority violated any part of the Louisiana Fire Service Bill of Rights and the individual was not afforded his due process in accordance with R.S. 33:2181.C the board shall declare the action to be an absolute nullity, and overturn the action taken by the appointing authority.

The board shall set a new date for the appeal hearing and rehear the case, allowing for any additional admissible evidence, and render a decision that would be appealable to the district court. The board shall notify the employee and the appointing authority of the date, time, and place of the hearing at least ten (10) calendar days in advance of the date set for the new hearing.

SECTION 17: The decision of the board together with the board's written finding of fact, shall be certified in writing to the appointing authority and shall be enforced forthwith by the appointing authority.

This appeal shall lie direct to the court of original and unlimited jurisdiction in civil suits of Terrebonne Parish. This appeal shall be taken by serving the board, within thirty (30) calendar days of its decision, a written notice of appeal, stating the grounds thereof and demanding that a certified transcript of the record, or written findings of fact, and all papers on file in the office of the board affecting or relating to such decisions, be filed with the designated court. SECTION 3: If the appellant fails to appear at the place and time fixed for any hearing, his appeal may be dismissed. If either the appointing authority or the appellant fails to appear at the place and time fixed for any hearing, the board may, in its discretion, continue the case or proceed with the hearing and render its decision upon the preponderance of evidence, as may be adduced at the hearing.
