FIRE INVESTIGATION & PREVENTION OFFICER

(Competitive Class)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS

This class encompasses a responsible, specialized, non-supervisory position, the major duties of which include performing fire inspections of businesses, schools, and other places of public assembly, and investigating the causes of fires of suspicious or undetermined origin. The incumbent of this class conducts the fire prevention and public fire education program for the department, lecturing on fire prevention and safety, and maintaining all records of fire prevention activities for the department. The employee of this class works independently in most areas, with work reviewed by the Fire Chief.

EXAMPLES OF WORK

Examples listed below are illustrative only. They are not intended to include all duties which may be assigned, neither are they intended to exclude other duties which may be logical assignments to the class.

Oversees the Fire Prevention, Fire Inspection, and Fire Public Education Divisions. Performs regular fire prevention inspections of businesses, schools, and other places of public assembly, and gathers information for pre-fire planning purposes. Makes a field sketch of inspected building, including general information about floor plans, building dimensions, and locations of fire hydrants and surrounding streets. Assesses the occupant load of a building and inspects to see if the means of egress are sufficient. Inspects portable and fixed fire extinguishing systems, and functional aspects of fire detection and alarm systems. Examines fire hydrants and conducts flow tests to ensure adequate water supplies are available for firefighting efforts. Inspects structures for electrical hazards, and storage areas for flammable and combustible liquids, to ensure that proper safety precautions are being followed and all applicable codes are being met. Ensures structures meet fire resistance requirements, and inspects heating, ventilating, air conditioning systems, and cooking equipment to assure that equipment and its installation meet applicable codes and standards. Draws up evacuation plans for schools, hotels, hospitals, or any other buildings required to have such plans. Oversees fire safety in public assembly occupancies at major public events. Monitors and evaluates local conditions that may become fire or safety hazards.

Receives complaints of fire hazards and of code violations and responds according to departmental procedures. Prepares for inspection by reviewing previous inspection reports, and becoming familiar with potential hazards, building plans, and applicable codes. Contacts the owner/occupant upon arrival at inspection site, and gives briefing detailing the inspection process. Discusses inspection findings with building owner or manager, making recommendations for the correction of fire hazards. Enforces fire prevention codes and ordinances by re-inspecting buildings where violations occurred and, if necessary, by issuing citations, assessing fines, or serving court summonses or stop work orders for non-compliance. Completes reports of fire inspections, recording all necessary information, and outlining conclusions reached and recommendations made from findings. Prepares information and evidence from inspections for use in a court proceeding; testifies in court or serves as an advisor to the prosecutor.

Reviews records and reports which reflect incidents of fire hazards and identifies the most important local fire problems for the purpose of developing fire education efforts. Trains fire service personnel and volunteers who participate in the fire safety education program. Conducts fire drills for businesses and schools, as well as healthcare, industrial, and correctional facilities. Maintains a reference library on inspection, investigation, and public fire education topics. Writes and delivers speeches and conducts lectures, talks and demonstrations on fire safety topics to school's clubs, or other organized groups. Evaluates the impact of the public fire education program, selects program components and objectives to meet community needs, and determines specific content and format of fire safety messages. Responds to questions from the public about the department or any related areas of fire prevention services.

Recommends management policies, goals, and objectives related to fire prevention. Gathers information to be used in compiling budgets and prepares and submits divisional operation budget to the proper authority. Writes requests for grants or other special funds to aid in the operation of the fire prevention service and administers grant-funded projects. Evaluates division needs, recommends purchases, and disburses and maintains inventory of supplies and equipment used by the division. Documents division activities by compiling, organizing, and analyzing data for fire prevention purposes. Personally, completes any forms and records assigned.

Performs related duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

Unless otherwise specified, all requirements listed below must be met by the filing deadline for application for admission to the test.

Must meet all requirements of the Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service Law, including being a citizen of the United States and of legal age.

After offer of employment, but before beginning work in this class, must pass a physical examination, the selection and administration of which shall be authorized by the Appointing Authority, designed to demonstrate good health and physical fitness sufficient to perform the essential duties of the position, with or without accommodation.

Applicant must possess one of the following: high school diploma, high school equivalency certificate, high school transcript, affidavit from the issuing high school, associate's or bachelor's degree, or college transcript, any one of which must indicate that graduation has occurred, or a degree awarded. Any Louisiana applicant who presents a home study diploma shall submit necessary documentation indicating Louisiana Board of Elementary and Secondary Education (BESE) approval of the home study curriculum. Non-Louisiana applicants shall be required to present proof of completion of a high school curriculum which has been accredited by the applicant's state, or its state-approved agency. A certification of completion shall not be sufficient to substitute for a diploma or equivalency certificate.

Must possess a valid driver's license.

EITHER

Must have at least two (2) year of experience in fire prevention work with a paid fire department or fire prevention agency, including performing fire inspections, conducting fire investigations, or conducting fire prevention education programs.

OR

FIRE TRAINING OFFICER

(Competitive Class)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS

This class encompasses a responsible position in the fire service, the primary duties of which include assembling and developing training materials, conducting training classes, and keeping records of training activities. The Training Officer evaluates the performance of department employees during formal classroom training and during drills and evolutions. The employee of this class exercises no line authority; however, the employee is given supervisory authority in the training environment. The Training Officer performs most duties with little supervision, and reports to and has work reviewed by the Fire Chief.

EXAMPLES OF WORK

Examples listed below are illustrative only. They are not intended to include all duties which may be assigned, neither are they intended to exclude other duties which may be logical assignments to this class.

Oversees the operation of the Training Division. Develops a training program for the department and sees that such program is properly staffed and supplied with training resources. Provides for regular employee training at all levels within the department and makes recommendations for improvements in the training program. Conducts training in the classroom setting, at the drill field, or at the fire station, in the following subject areas: basic firefighting; fire attack; hydraulics; safety; the use of firefighting apparatus, tools, and equipment; fire extinguishers; breathing apparatus; forcible entry; rescue; ventilation; fire streams; nozzle and hose handling; pump operations; ropes; hazardous materials; salvage and overhaul; first aid and CPR; pre-fire planning; communications; and any other fire service related subjects as assigned or required. Provides informal or "on-the-job" training for new employees. Responds to fire incidents to observe operations for training purposes, and may assist in firefighting operations, if required.

Schedules training for all department employees and makes arrangements for agility testing for newly hired employees. Coordinates the movement of fire companies to and from all training activities. Prepares lesson plans and training materials for training classes. Assists the Fire Chief in maintaining a library of training materials. Develops job simulation exercises to evaluate skills acquired during training. Develops, administers, and grades training tests. Evaluates the effectiveness of training to determine the need for additional training or for changes in the training program and makes recommendations for improvement. Identifies and appraises conditions that could produce accidents and financial losses. Recommends changes in department operations that will help the city obtain favorable PIAL ratings. Keeps informed on modern firefighting methods and administrative practices.
